Mr. Jackson reported on the NSC Staff meeting yesterday in regard to the [redacted] paper. The census of the meeting was that most of the JCS paper was irrelevant. The original Senior Staff paper was reviewed, three small changes made, and unanimously passed with the JCS member present. Mr. Jackson feels that we will get our directive but that actual support is a different question. Mr. Wisner is afraid that the individual members of the JCS may follow the thinking in this JCS paper. In this relation Mr. Dulles suggested that it would be a good idea for the PSB to approve all CIA projects currently going on. The DCI approved this.

Director's Meeting (Cont'd.)
28 August 1951

Mr. Dulles asked if the Director had heard from the Air Force in regard to aircraft. The DCI has not.

Mr. Dulles asked if the Director had been in touch with [ ] about going to [ ]. The DCI has not been able to reach him but will try again.

The Director stated that the briefing for Admiral Fechteler on Friday will be held in the conference room.

Mr. Wisner reported that if we wanted to use Gen. [ ] it would be eminently satisfactory to USAF.

[ ]

The DCI and Mr. Jackson are somewhat worried for fear the location of our proposed building is too far off.
